Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Prior to filing, the organization's Form 990 and annual audit are distributed to all board members. The board of directors then meets with the organization's external auditors to review the Form 990, audit, and all related documents and to ask questions / receive clarification if appropriate. The Form 990 is finalized and filed only when it has been unanimously approved by the organizations' board of directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - In addition to requiring all board members to complete an annual questionnaire that requires board members to disclose any potential conflicts of interest, prior to the acceptance of any bid on any contract, all board members and offers of the organization are required to divulge any conflict of interest that might arise with regard to said contract. Should a potential conflict arise, the relevant board member / officer is disqualified from considering the contract or proposal, and before any bid or proposal is accepted, it is vetted by the organization's external auditors to ensure that the acceptance of a bid or proposal would not create a conflict of interest. The organization does not accept bids or proposals where it is determined that a conflict of interest might exist.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The board of directors determines the compensation of the CEO and employees whose compensation may exceed $100,000.00 only after conducting a thorough review of comparative data, compensation reports published by Guidestar and Charity Navigator, and other types of contemporaneous data that board members believe would help them to set a fair and reasonable salary for the organization's CEO and other key employees, including organizational performance. The salary of the CEO of the organization and other highly compensated officers / employees is then set each year by the board of directors using this methodology. This methodology is employed annually by the organization's board of directors and was employed in the current year as the board of directors set the salary for the CEO and other of the organization's key employees.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The organization provides access to its Form 1023, governing documents, financial statements and conflict of interest policy via its website, the website operated by such organizations as Guidestar, and by regular mail.

Schedule B, Part I - All donors listed on Schedule B, Part I may be contacted through Modest Needs Foundation's office.

Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

Modest needs has always used shared servers to save on technology cost. In December 2015, our shared server, which contained most of the data necessary to complete our Form 990 in a timely manner, suffered a catastrophic failure, after which we learned that the hosting company we had been using had not been performing regular backups as promised. As a result, we had no choice but to completely rebuild all 2015 data from hard copies and other similar physical elements documenting many thousands of contributions and disbursements. As Modest Needs has a very small staff, to complete this work for 2015, and then to manually enter the data for 2016 once the data for 2015 had been reconstructed, has taken the better part of 18 months, and it is for this reason that our 2016 filing is coming somewhat later than would normally be the case. However, we have already taken steps to ensure that our filings will be perpetually on time going forward. Most specifically, we have changed our hosting company and now use private servers with enhanced security, all of which are backed up on both hourly and daily bases, and we now also keep electronic backups of all relevant documentation on file in our office in the event of a catastrophic data loss like that we suffered through no fault of our own in December 2015. We filed our 2016 Form 990 as soon as we were confident that we could provide the IRS and the public with an entirely accurate return, and we appreciate your kindness and consideration in light of an extremely difficult situation we could not have anticipated or avoided.
